CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1908.

PRICE 5 CENTS

TO RACE AT NEW ORLEANS.

MEETING SCHEDULED FOR SUBURBAN PARK TO BEGIN SATURDAY, JANUARY 16.

Joseph A. Murphy to Preside and Arthur McKnight To Do the Starting-Judge Murphy's Important Statement.

New Orieans, La., December 29.—Quite unexpectedly a full-fledged plan to conduct a race meeting here has developed. It is not to be over either of the two big tracks, but over the Suburban Park track in the neighboring Jefferson Parish. It is a well considered and planned affair with all details worked out. It is to be conducted under auspices that will command the aftention and confidence of all interested in the affairs of the turf, Joseph A. Murphy has consented to act as presiding judge and nanager of the meeting and Arthur McKnight is to do the starting. The meeting is to open Saturday, January 16. J. B. Respess has taken an active interest in organizing the venture and is one of its leading backers. The word has been quietly passed to owners in winter quarters to prepare their horses for sudden action and the big array of owners and horses now at San Antonio, Texas, can be transported to New Orleans in twenty-four hours. With them and the reinforcement sure to gather speedily, the meeting will start off with an abundance of horses.

the meeting will start off with an abundance of borses.

When the Locke bill was being debated in the state senate before its enactment into law, its most ardent and influential supporters agreed that under its provisions individual betting was not in any way interfered with or prohibited. In this is the keynote to the betting at Suburban Park. It will be individual betting there in the style used on New York tracks last summer and which has been held to be legal in several decisions rendered by New York courts. It is not proposed to race in contravention of the Locke law, but under its tolerance of individual betting.

San Antonio Tex., December 29.—Discussing the proposed meeting to be conducted at Suburban Park. Joseph A. Murphy, who will be the general manager, stated today: "I have a copy of the Locke law and intend to race strictly to its provisions. I shall ask the county officers to point out the line that is the straight one and we will hew to it strictly. We will make no attempt to evade or test the constitutionality of the law. There will be no tent, shed, tenement or other device to harbor bod waking, nor will the management take the slightest cognizance of betting. We have ample financial backing to meet a loss if necessary and I propose to begin the rejuvenation and upbuilding of racing in Louisiana on clean and proper lines. "Arthur McKnight, who has started with much success on the Texas circuit, will do the starting and I will go into the judges' stand myself, besides making the program and doing the handicapping. The rest of the officials will be chosen with great care. The purses at the beginning will not be offered."

SUCCESS OF CANADIAN RACING.

Toronto, Ont., December 29.—W. P. Fraser, secretary of the Ontario Jockey Club, says, in reviewing the racing of 1908, that the Canadian racing associations enjoyed the most successful season in their history. "The racing season in Canada," says Mr. Fraser, "under Jockey Club rules, that is to say, in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec, must be looked back upon as highly successful. The several racing associations not only increased their purses, but brought the conditions of their races to a higher standard, resulting in good contests with horses of a higher class. Improvements have been unade to the various properties of the clubs above mentioned for the convenience of horsemen and public alike.

"The exceptionally fine weather of the past year added much to the enjoyment of everyone, being especially pleasant to Governor-General and Lady Grey, who, with their suite, were present both at the Ontario Jockey Club's spring function and at Blue Bonnets at Montreal. Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Mortimer Clark also graced with their presence-the opening day of Hamilton's spring meeting. Such kindly interest taken in racing by the most distinguished members of society in Canada adds very largely to the social nature of these gather or ender the occasion a success.

"The curtailment of racing in the United States during the past year has, doubtless, directed increased attention from Americans to Canada, but already there is evidence of plenty of opportunity for lovers of racing to gratify their hobby in the great country to the south of us. Consequently, it does not seem necessary to fear a general invasion of Canada—even to participate in the Interesed values of purses which it is said Canadian jockey clubs with ofter in 1609, those associations at the same time pursuing a most conservative policy regarding the duration of their meetings. The past year has seen a greatly increased interest taken in the breeding of thoroughbred horses, not only in Ontario, but throughout the Dominion, numbers of thoroughbred mares h

ANGELUS DISAPPOINTS HIS ADMIRERS.

Los Angeles, Cal., December 29.—When Bucket Brigade fell heavily on the first turn in the fifth race today, it seemed for a time that jockey Kennedy, who lay apparently lifeless on the track, had been killed, but after he was picked up he regained consciousness fast and when taken to the paddock it was found that he had suffered only a severe shaking up.

Much disappointment was felt at Angelus' poor showing in the fourth race, the Rose Hill Handicap, which went to Glorio, the second choice. He was outpaced all the way and was passed in the final strides by Gemmell for second place, Glorio took an easy lead after Green Seal tired on the far turn and, showing great speed thereafter, simply made his opponents look common, winning in a canter. Hen Trovato, by his excellent victory in the one and one-eighth miles race today, stamped himself as one of the most consistent horses that ever raced here. He was generously supported by the public and falent allike and rewarded the confidence olaced in him by winning easily from Round and Round and great applause. After the race he was bid up from $600 to $1,000 by E. Maine, but was retained by owner Reid for the customary $5 extra bid.

Miss Sain would probably have won the third race, but bled. Despite this, however, she ran an excellent race, being beaten only a head by Tony Bonero.

Sonero.
The betting was fair with the public having the better of the day's speculation.

ARMY MEN'S DAY AT SAN ANTONIO.

San Anionio, Tex., December 29,—Military Day at the Fair Grounds was made noticeable by the presence of nearly all the officers and many of the privates in the U. S. garrison stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Many of San Antonio's best society aided by their presence, and there was a really metropolian racing air. The crack military post band rendered numerous selections and were given an ovation.

WHAT T. HITCHCOCK, JR.'S, HORSES DID FOR HIM IN 1908

With a stable of modest number, T. Hitchcock, Jr., fared well enough in his racing operations of 1908 and, had Salvidere trained well, would have done better still. But this naturally great race horse had so far gone to the bad in his legs that all the skill and care of John E. Madden could not fit him to cope successfully with the other good horses of the year. Angelus proved a serviceable three-year-old and was his nain dependence and money earner in flat racing. In that branch of racing in which he mainly centers his interest, steeplechasing, he achieved his greatest measure of success. Bayonet, his half brother to the American berby winner. The Picket, proved himself one of the best steeplechasers of the year and, aside from purses, won the Kings Highway and Deerfoot Steeplechase Stakes at Gravesend, Beverwyck and Shillelah Steeplechase Stakes at Saratoga and the Introductory Steeplechase at Sheepshead Bay. California King and Stokes also won steeplechase stakes for him, the latter winning the Harbor Hill Cup at the Belmont Park autumn meeting and stamping himself a young jumper of extraordinary promise. The stable record for the year is:

ANDREW J. JOYNER'S STABLE EARNINGS OF THIS YEAR

Besides training star racers for August Belmont and Harry Payne Whitney, rotund Jack Joyner found time to train and race a string of horses of assorted ages in his own name and did very well with them. In Golden Pearl and Hessian he had two crack three-year-olds, in Fitz Herbert a two-year-old of more than average merit that he let pass to another ownership too early in the year, and other decidedly useful racers in Cressina, Rialto, Trots Temp, Cairngorm, Ramble and Homecrest. Hessian was a good colt, but something of a disappointment to Joyner, who expected him to prove the equal of any horse of his age, an opinion shared by other shrewd turfmen, but it did not work out altogether satisfactorily in the racing, Golden Pearl proving his chief money earner. Joyner is now in England with the Whitney horses in his charge and most of his horses are racing well in California for other owners. His stable record is as fol-

STABLE EARNINGS OF GWYN R. TOMPKINS' HORSES

Gwyn R. Tompkins, about as well known to Chicago patrons of the turf in former years as to New Yorkers more recently, is strictly devoted to the steeplechasers, although an admirably skillful trainer of flat races as well as of jumpers. Here in Chicago he achieved notable victories with Can Can. Fronde and Locky Rolfe and down east his successes with horses belonging to other owners, as well as his own, have been too numerous to chronicle. This year he campaigned a small stable on his own account and with his veteran jumper, Jimmy Lane; made a record that any trainer might view with satisfied pride. His younger jumper, St. Nick, also did capital service with five victories out of nine starts and should prove a good one next year. Outside of the sprinter Tenakoe his other horses proved disappointments, but on the whole he is probably satisfied with the following record of stable winnings:

LONG-PRICED WINNERS OF 1908

Although over 7,000 races, including those run at the minor meetings in the south and west, were decided during the season of 1908, only thirty-seven horses won at the odds of 40 to 1 or better. The highest priced winner of the year was Percy Green, which, under the colors of M. Ochsner, scored at Louisville on May 13 and rewarded his backers at the odds of 139 to 1. These odds were the result of the betting in the pari-mutuels, then in use at the Kentucky tracks. Alleviator, at Santa Anita Park, January 7; Colonel Jewell, at Santa Anita Park, March 10; Semper Vera, at Latonia, June 30, and Mystifier, at Latonia, November 9, were the only horses to win at the odds of 100, to 1. August Belmont's Field Mouse is the only high-class horse included in the following list of long-priced winners for the season of 1908:

The military race which featured the card was won by Captain A. McIntyre of the Third Field Artillery, who has seen many years of active service in the Phillipines. He was on the thoroughbred horse Camp Mate, a three-year-old gelding by First Mate-Camp Mateling. The horse has been used in the cavalry branch of the army for nearly a year. His victory was a hollow one.

The track conditions were the worst since the opening and were responsible for the declaring off of two of the races. An extra one was substituted for the original third, but none for the fifth, as with the military race there, still remained six races on the card. The books were again given a stiff beating.

S. C. Hildreth is negotiating with D. C. O'Malley for the release of the contract held by the latter on jockey Butwell's services. Pickens' good riding was again a feature. To his ability was due the victories of Sam Taylor and Cam Pan.

FIELDS IMPROVING AT SAVANNAH.

Savannah, Ga., December 29.—The new rule compelling trainers to obtain the stewards' sanction for scratching a horse that is entered in any race had a salutory effect on today's sport. A well-balanced card of five races produced some excellent racing, the main feature of which was the fifth, the winner turning up in the neglected Ensley at odds of 15 to 1. Only one favorite was successful during the day, Belle of the Bay winning the fourth race in a canter.

Tommy Burns and James McLaughlin, Jr., arrived from New York today. Burns will ride here and get himself in condition to fulfill his engagements in France, for which country he will leave after the close of this meeting.

Jockey Dale was indefinitely suspended for his ride on Panique in the first race yesterday.

The merchants of Savannah are getting up a purse to be known as the Merchants' Stakes.

New horses are coming every day, ten arriving this morning, six from New Orleans and four from New York.

BAYARDO THE DERBY FAVORITE.

English betting on the 1900 Epsom Derby has be gun, one bet of $5,500 to $2,000 being registered December 15 on the unbeaten Bayardo.

JOCKEYS DUEL WITH WHIPS

LEE AND KIRSCHBAUM TREAT OAKLAND'S PATRONS TO AN UNUSUAL SPECTACLE.

Favorites Generally Defeated-Weights Announced for the New Year Handicap with Restigouche Top Weight.

San Francisco, Cal., December 29.—Race-goers were treated to an unusual scene during the running of the last furlong of the fourth race at Oakland today. Instead of going about the business in hand jockeys J. Lee and Kirschbaum on Bon Homme and Ocean Queen, the leaders, devoted their control of the properties of the white or one another with re-

Oakkand today. Instead of going about the business in hand jockeys J. Lee and Kirschbaum on Bon Homme and Ocean Queen, the leaders, devoted their energies to plying the whip on one another with results disastrous for both, as in addition to being passed at the end and losing the race to Sempronium, an outsider, which had stolen up unnoticed on the outside while the duel was going on, they were each fined $50 by the stewards. This particular race was the feature of an otherwise mediocre card, composed principally of selling races. Six two-year-olds of superior class took part and the running from first to last was replete with interest and excitement.

Bon Homme dominated the betting and carried a small fortune in wagers. His rider's quarter-mile riding taeties proved his undoing and he dropped by the wayside while his jockey was busily engaged in behaboring his rival. The edifying spectacle evoked a storm of hisses from the spectators. Jockey J. Butler was promptly fined $50 for foul riding on Colonel White in the fifth race and Unton $10 for breaking from another than his rightful position at the post on Aks-Ar-Ben.

E. J. Ramsey and H. G. Bedwell both put in claims for Colonel White after the fifth race. Ramsey got him for $825.

Only two favorites were successful. The weather, gloony and threatening, had a deterrent effect on the attendance, but the sport was satisfactory enough. The right name of the abscending cashier of the Sheepshead Bay Club is William Weidner. He hails from Detroit. The California Jockey Club paid all wagers on the Twilight Queen race today.

Martin Nathanson announced weights for the New Year Handicap today. It has sixty-two eligibles. Restigouche is top weight of the probable starters at 127 pounds; Montgomery has 129; Dorante, 118; Prounds; Montgomery has 129; Dorante, 118; Son Enrique, 110; Royal Tourist. 112; Colonel Jack, 108; Arase, 104; Tony Faust, 102; Gowan, 102; Big Chief, 118; Firestone, 111, and Light Wool, 15.

S. Emery's two-year-old. Erbet, bled when a furlong out in hi present lethargy.

J. W. Brooks and Peter Gaffney are recent arrivals.

The great Jack Atkin will be sent up here for the Follansbee Highweight Handicap, if the going is not muddy. Light Wool and Montgomery worked impressively between races today, Thomas' horse doing his nine-furlong task much the easier, however. Time, 1:58 flat, and extra good for the track.

FUTURITY STAKES OF NEXT YEAR.

The Futurity of 1909 had an original nomination of 951 mares, of which six proved to be ineligible, leaving the true first entry one of 946 mares. What number of these proved to be barren, slipped foals or had dead foals or twins, has not been given out by the Coney Island Jockey Club, so the present condition of the big event cannot be stated with positive accuracy, but it can be closely approximated. Void nominations from the causes named are usually in the neighborhood of two-fifths of the whole, so to deduct 380 from the original 946 will probably prove close to the real record when it is disclosed by the club. This would leave 566 eligible up to the November declarations. These amounted in all to 476. So there are now about ninety colts and filles eligible and subject to further depletion at the next declaration, which takes place July 15, 1909.

The November declarations were unusually heavy, because Messrs. Haggin, Keene, Belmont. Whitney and other breeders had sent many of their eligibles abroad for sale or for racing. But one and all of these men have taken the precaution to preserve some of their nominations. Many other owners declared out at the small first declaration fee because of the squally racing times and it may be reasonably assumed that those left in represent little in the way of taking chances, but are, so far as could be determined, the picked ones of each man's nominations. This conduces to good racing and the total now left in is sufficient to provide a field fully up to the traditions of the two-year-old Derby of America.

Of the declarations already made, 394 were at $10 each; 100 at $20 each and two at $70 each, so there is already an accumulation of $6,080 towards the ultimate value of the big race.

GOOD RACING AT EL PASO.

El Paso, Tex., December 29.—Fine weather and an excellent card brought out a large week-day crowd to witness the sport at Washington Park this crowd to witness the sport at Washington Park this afternoon. The fourth race, a handicap at six and a half furlongs, was the main attraction of the day, and resulted in the overthrow of the favorite, Apple Toddy, which finished third to Sylvia U. and Doc Allen. Favorites captured the remainder of the card.

Word from San Antonio says that several carloads of horses will leave for here immediately after the close of that meeting next Saturday.

The judges have restored jockey Cavanaugh to good standing. The horses Berlin and Nabonassar, property of Fred Foster, will be sold at auction tomorrow at the Fair Grounds.

J. H. Shouldice has been appointed racing secretary in place of S. Courtaine, who resigned on account of business pressure elsewhere.

PEOPLE ABROAD AFTER HERMIS.

Lexington, Ky., December 29.—H. Eugene Leigh cabled Henry M. Ziegler of Cincinnati today asking if he would lease Hermis for two years for $3.000 per year, with the privilege of buying at the end of that time for $15,000. Leigh said he was acting for a responsible person who would pay expenses of transportation to France and pay insurance on the noted son of Hermence.

Mr. Ziegler consulted by phone with trainer Charles Hughes, in whose care Hermis is at Highland Farm, after which Hughes said Mr. Ziegler had decided not to lease the horse, but would cable Leigh tomorrow morning that he would entertain a proposition for the purchase of Hermis outright.

ENGLISHMEN BOUND TO BET.

At the recent English Gimcrack Club dinner, W. Raphael, the guest of the evening said: "If racing is allowed, betting must follow, because it is in the Englishman's nature. Are we such saints, and are all the European nations, and our own colonies such sinners? Perhaps we may be the greater hypocrites."

This frank statement was approved by a volume of applause from the English turf magnates assembled.

Harry Rogers, luckily and placed early, was carried hopelessly wide on the stretch turn, lost much ground and failed Mrs. Nugent, away flatfooted and shuffled back on the first turn, closed an immense gap.

Sempronium, skillfully and patiently reserved within striking distance in the early running, came fast and made good decisively on the outside in the stretch. Ocean Queen, after forward early pursuit, was crowded out at the half, then came through on the inside in the last quarter and, after being badly crowded to the final sixteenth, made a very game finish in the worst going. Tom Reid, away slowly, ran into quick forward contention and was badly bumped midway of the stretch by the winner, then finished a fast going third. Bon Homme set the pace for six furlongs, then tired badly and his race should be thrown out. Stratched—(78896) Trols Temp, 110.

Winner—Ch. g, by Toddington—Suspicion (trained by W. Read).
Went to post at 3:55. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. Raconteur, in forward contention from the start, was crowded out on the far turn, but finished fast on the outside and got up in the last stride under a good ride. John H. Sheehan helped in pacemaking, disposed of Fireball in the first half and drew out in the stretch, but succumbed finally and is extra good, but short. Nebulosus trailed in the early running and closed an immense gap in a cracking effort. Spohn steadily improved his position into a fast going fourth. May Amelia, forced out early, closed a gap in the last half, Mauretania, in close quarters and outpaced to the stretch, finished fast and is promising. Fireball was carried along too fast and tired. Burning Bush, after prominent contention, was shut off badly at the half and will do to watch. Deutschland quit badly. The winner was entered for $1,500; no bid. STAKE-WINNING JOCKEYS OF THIS YEAR.

Notter Far in the Lead in Number and Aggregate Value of Events Won.

Held fortunate and envied of his fellow riders is the jockey to whom falls the distinction of piloting home the winners of great stake races. In this agrecable feature of riding jockey Joe Notter was pre-eminent in 1908. His connection with the great stable of James R. Keene gave him the opportunity of riding such great thorses as Colin. Ballot. Celt. Maskette and Helmet, and have his name inscribed in the list of pilots of the winners of such importunity and the list of pilots of the winners of such important races as the Withers, Belmont. Brooklyn. Suburban. Tidal. Advance. Hopeful. Futurity. Great Filly, Century and other leading events of American racing. Not all of his stake successes were for his stable, and for others he rode in stakes energetically and successfully, but the greater portion of his victories were in behalf of Mr. Keene. In all, he rode the winners of forty-eight stake races, and in respect to numbers as well as combined value was not even closely approached by any of his competitors. Notter is a good rider. Whether he is superior in skill to Powers or Shilling is a matter of opinion.

Eddie Dugan was second to Notter in the aggregate value of stakes won but not in number of closed events to his credit. The principal events carried off by him were the Burns Handicap at Oakland. California Handicap at Santa Anita Park. California Derby, Crescent City Derby at New Orleans, Brooklyn Derby at Gravesend and Lawrence Realization at Sheepshead Bay. His propensity for rough riding got him into trouble and he has been under suspension for some months. He is now at Oakland and will be eligible to ride January 1. He is to go to England to ride the Whitney horses next year.

In some respects C. H. Shilling is our best rider. He was successed in more stake races than Dugan. But their total value was not so great. His leading successes were achieved in the Metropolitan Handicar at Belmont Park. Saratoga. Special and Grand and Annual Champion Stakes at Saratoga. Flatbush. Stakes and the Los Angeles Derby saddle speedily brings him a host of hopeful followers.

In value of stakes won the colored rider, J. Leer comes fourth, because of riding John E. Madden's crack two-year-olds in the National Stallion Stakes, Great American Stakes, Great Trial Stakes and Double Event. There is no doubt that when easy in his mind Lee is a skillful jockey, but he too frequently gets an idea into his head that the white riders are conspiring to injure him and, through timidity thus engendered, rides in a way that discredits his real merit as a jockey.

Of the other riders Walter Miller declined greatly from his high estate of the two previous years, yet was not without a measure of success, in taking such capital prizes of, the turf as the Tremont Stakes, Commonwealth Handicap, first half of the Double Event and Nursery Handicap, besides stakes of minor importance. Musgrave rode quite brilliantly for a time, and with the Carter Handicap and other early spring stakes acquired prominence that did not last. D. McCarthy did well as a comer. "Puddin' McDandel took a few good stakes. J. Butler had the time of his life when he

HORSES THAT HAVE DIED THIS YEAR.
